We dedicate this yearbook to the Old Rochester Regional "Bulldog". The "Bulldog" symbolizes the united efforts of the taxpayers of Rochester, Marion, and Mattapoisett, who demonstrated their faith in the youth of the three towns by collaborating to give them this fine high school. The "Bulldog" also symbolizes the growth, spirit and achievements of the school, its faculty, and its students.

The school has grown considerably in its five years of existence. The number of students in the graduating class has grown from seventy-six in 1962 to the one hundred and thirty-nine who will graduate this year.

School spirit has grown even faster than the increase in the student body. In its first year, the school and its members were united, but not nearly to the extent that they are today. There is no longer the question, "Which town is he from?", for we are all proud members of this institution, and place of residence is of secondary importance. We are one.

Achievements of the school and its members have been great. In the field of academics, many have gone on to college and other forms of higher education. In athletics, our triumphs have been many. We are all grateful to Mr. Almeida and his football team for giving us an undefeated football season this year. This brought not only glory to the school, but also further unity within the student body. The success of our basketball team also enabled us to demonstrate our pride in our school; school spirit was in evidence at all athletic events.

We predict that Old Rochester's spirit and unity, under the watchful eye of the "Bulldog", will grow even more throughout the coming years.

ADMINISTRATION

Superintendent of Schools

JOSEPH C. KUNCES

In our democratic society the special function allocated to our educational institutions, including our own Old Rochester, is to supply you with the intellectual tools, the intellectual discipline and the intellectual framework necessary for you to understand present day problems and problems not yet known to us which must be faced in the future.

I remind you, however, that learning never ceases and that you have just begun to study. Although you have been supplied with intellectual tools, intellectual discipline and an intellectual framework to understand problems, it will be necessary for you, throughout your lives, to maintain sharp edges on the intellectual tools you possess and to keep fit your intellectual discipline.

Graduates:

Today the Federal Government is concerned with the education of people throughout the world, as well as the education of young men and women in this country. The problem is related to the catastrophe that could take place between the "haves" and the "have-nots" in the world. Actually, it is a race between educating mankind to provide sufficient food, adequate shelter and a proper understanding of one another in order to avoid a catastrophe in the world of tomorrow caused by the "have-nots". You must obtain the knowledge and wisdom necessary for success in whatever you do. Equally important to knowledge is the consideration for your fellow man. We ought to understand the environment and culture of people in every land.

If a man does not keep pace with his companions, perhaps it is because he hears the beat of a different drummer. Let him step to the music which he hears, however measured or far away.

Henry Thoreau

HAROLD M. GAY
ASSISTANT PRINCIPAL

Congratulations to you, the graduate of 1966.

Although many people finish high school or even college, and although they have been exposed to an education, they are not truly educated. The reason for this paradox is that some people reduce education to the amassing of knowledge rather than a search for the truth. Some people wander aimlessly without recognizing the qualities necessary to be an educated person. What, then, are the qualities of an educated man?

The educated man must be able to think. In other words he must shoot the arrow of intellectual curiosity to its proper target—TRUTH.

An educated person must be tolerant. He must respect the opinion of others even though he may not agree with them.

The educated man must have a philosophy of life with an answer to three basic questions: Where do I come from? Why am I here? Where am I going?

The educated man must be able to separate reality and the tools of culture.

The educated man must beable to separate reality from the mass propaganda of words.

The uneducated are captivated by many words. The educated man must have a religion.

Now that you have started your education at high school, continue to reach the ideal so that you can truly say:

I HAVE THE QUALITIES OF AN EDUCATED MAN.

Alejandro Decher is better known as Alex in the Old Rochester halls. From Concepcion, Chile, Alex has brought added understanding and friendliness to those of us who know him.

After having lived on a farm with servants and having gone to an all-boys school, Alex finds Old Rochester and the American home life quite different; but he loves it. He had his first sail in the Mattapoisett harbor and also played tennis and football for the first time here. The schoolwork has proved challenging, and he has especially enjoyed his physics and math classes, since he is planning to become a civil engineer after returning to Chile.

We have all enjoyed Alex's stay here, and hope that someday he will come back and see us again.

CLASSES

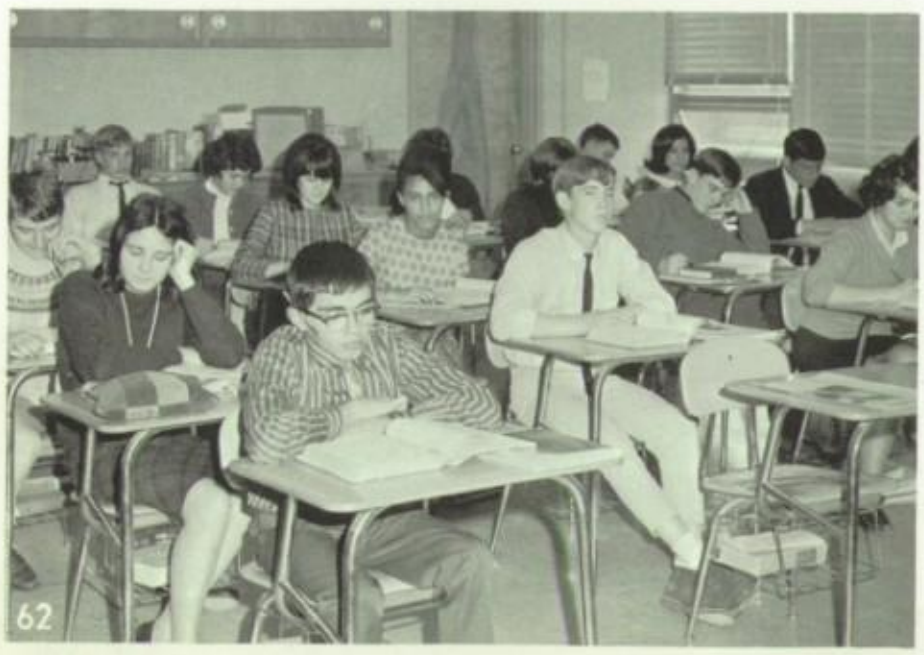
Juniors

"Are you sure that that's what the book says?"

OFFICERS: Pat Zora, Treasurer; Terry Prunty, Vice President; Richard Larcom, President; Dale Thackeray, Secretary.

During the past year the Junior Class sponsored a Record Hop during December at which Vic Armen was the disc-jockey. We also decorated the Christmas tree in the lobby. On March 17, a class meeting was held to discuss the Junior Prom. Judy Ouellette was elected the Prom Chairman and "Some Enchanted Evening" was our theme. The Prom was held May 20 and attendance was excellent. In April the class sponsored a movie for the children of the area. Our final event was the annual Junior-Senior Day.

"Wait a minute; it'll come to me in a second."



"Iknew I never should have gotten up this morning."

Sophomores

"I'm waiting."

This year the Sophomore Class had two meetings. At the first meeting we discussed the payment of dues and formed a Ways and Means Committee. The second meeting was called to form committees for our dance, which took place in the spring. Our spring dance was successful and our final event of the year.

OFFICERS: JoAnne Bessette, Vice President; Jane Wordell, President; Becky Zora, Treasurer; Gerry Gastar, Secretary.

OFFICERS: Kathy McCartin, Secretary; Nancy La France, President; Betsy Wood, Treasurer; Joan Darrah, Vice President (absent).

In the year 1965-66 the Freshman Class did very well. We collected dues and the class responded well. We also planned a dance in April which was very successful. In the spring we planned the Frosh-Soph Basketball Game; attendance and participation were overwhelming.

A typical day in A-241, work, work, work!

"Man, what a story!"
